DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-10, drawn to collecting tag data, creating business documents, and converting business documents, classified in class 705, subclass 28.
 - II. Claims 11-20, drawn to receiving object identification data, comparing object identification data, and retrieving data from an external source, classified in class 705, subclass 30.
2. Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination I has separate utility such as collecting tag data, creating business documents, and converting business documents. Subcombination II has separate utility such as receiving object identification data, comparing object identification data, and retrieving data from an external source. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

3. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claim invention:

If applicant elects Invention I, applicant must then elect one species from each of the following groups:

1st group election requirement drawn to a display device:

- Species A: Claim 6 drawn to a web browser.
- Species B: Claim 7 drawn to a wireless PDA.
- Species C: Claim 8 drawn to a cell phone.

4. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no generic claim.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include both, a chosen invention and an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement. With respect to the identification of the species that is elected, Applicant must also include a listing of all claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added either in response to this Office Action or in any future amendment. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

6. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, Applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

7. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

8. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

9. Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) The inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;
- (b) The inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;
- (c) The inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) The prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) The inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.
